On Nixon

Austin, Tex.

Frank Mankiewicz, a top campaign aide to Senator George McGovern, said yesterday that "Gerald Ford will be President by the first of June, and perhaps before."

"I think the country is in peril," said Mankiewicz. "There's plenty of grounds for saying that enough evidence exists against Richard Nixon to proceed with impeachment."

But Mankiewicz said he doesn't despair of our system of government.

"One Richard Nixon in 200 years speaks pretty well for the political system," he said.
