

Tax Deductions by Rhodes

WASHINGTON, Feb. 9 (AP) — Representative John J. Rhodes of Arizona, the House Republican leader, has announced that he has been giving his Congressional papers periodically to Arizona State University and that he took some tax deductions for gifts made before the law was changed to prohibit such deductions. Mr. Rhodes volunteered the information Thursday at a news conference covering various subjects and said he would make a more detailed statement later.

NYTimes

FEB 11 1974