

Ford's View of

Impeachable

Offenses

Denver

Vice President Gerald Ford told newspaper publishers and editors from 25 states yesterday that he believes President Nixon could be impeached only on "precise" constitutional grounds that include treason and bribery.

"In my view, the President can be impeached only for crimes described in the Constitution," Ford told members of the Inland Daily Press Association during a question-answer session. "This is treason, bribery or other high crimes and misdemeanors."

United Press