2 Nixon Ex-Aides Get Double Arraignment

top aides John Ehrlichman and trict Judge Gerhard Gesell. Charles W. Colson are ex- Gesell asked Sirica to acpected to plead not guilty to cept the pleas of Colson and an array of Watergate-related Ehrlichman in the break-in charges against them this case as well mainly as a matmorning before U.S. District ter of convenience to the for-Chief Judge John J. Sirica.

against them in connection a resident of Seattle. with both the alleged Waterberg's psychiatrist.

aigned today in the original Watergate cover-up case are former White House and Nixon campaign aides H. R. (Bob) Haldeman, Robert C. Mardian, John N. Mitchell, Kenneth W. Parkinson, and Gordon Strachan presidential has been assigned to U.S. Dis-mer presidential aides, accord-They will be arraigned on ing to court officials who recent indictments returned noted that Ehrlichman is now

The other four persons ingate cover-up and the break-in dicted in the "plumbers" case of the office of Daniel Ells- involving the Ellsberg breakin - G. Gordon Liddy, Ber-Also scheduled to be arr-nard Barker, Eugenio Martiaigned today in the original nez and Felipe De Diego-will Gordon Strachan.

While the cover-up will be handled by Judge Sirica in this and future stages, the Ellsberg break-in indictment,

An arraignment is a court proceeding following a grand jury indictment at which persons are notified formally of the charges against them and are allowed to enter a plea.