Memos Challenge End of '70 Spy

CHICAGO, March 9 (UPI)— lance against those considered domestic subversives.

Some congressional commit-Some congressional committees have been investigating domestic surveillance under the Nixon administration, and the House Judiciary Committee has disclosed one of its areas in its impeachment inquiry is the so-called Huston plan for intalliance. called Huston plan for intelligence operation, the newspaper

Congressional investigators have Federal Bureau of Investigation memos indicating part of a secret domestic intelligence plan was in operation months after President Nixon said he had called it off, The Chicago Tribune reported today.

The Tribune said that the memos were issued in the fall of 1970, and gave approval for the FBI to recruit teen-age informants and conduct "discreet" investigations of black student organizations in colleges.

Some congressional commit domestic subversives.

"In a May 22 statement in which Nixon tried to explain W at ergate ramifications," said the Tribune, "the President acknowledged he had approved the Huston plan on July 15, 1970, as a response to what he said was a need for a greatly improved domestic subversives.

"In a May 22 statement in which Nixon tried to explain W at ergate ramifications," said the Tribune, "the President acknowledged he had approved the Huston plan on July 15, 1970, as a response for a greatly improved domestic subversives.

"In a May 22 statement in which Nixon tried to explain W at ergate ramifications," said the Tribune, "the President acknowledged he had approved the Huston plan on July 15, 1970, as a response for a greatly improved domestic subversives.

Congressional sources of the Tribune, "the President acknowledged he had approved the Huston plan on July 15, 1970, as a response for a greatly improved domestic subversives.

Congressional sources, the alled Huston plan for intellience operation, the newspaper aid.

The memo, the Tribune said, stated that Hoover had approved potential security informants ages 18 to 21, and approved potential security informants ages 18 to 21, and approved potential security informants. Huston, a former presidential assistant, and urged the use of various devices and actions including wiretaps and surveil- of this opportunity."