U.S. Must Be Strong, Nixon Tells Veterans

President Nixon told a ban VFW's annual congressional quet meeting of the Veterans banquet at the Sheraton Park of Foreign Wars last night Hotel. that the key to this country's ability to play the role of peacemaker lies in its

As he has in other recent speeches, he again said that "in the remaining three years"

He said that no other nation in the free world has the strength necessary to play the peace role.

I have in this office one goal peace role.

"It is essential that we not listen to those who say we should limit or reduce our strength," the President said.
"Peace is never something that is achieved once and for all and can be taken for ly world."

The VFW presented its annual congressional award to Chairman George Mahon (D-Tex.) of the House Appropriations Committee. The President also paid tribute to Mahon as a man who could close-all and can be taken for ly scrutinize the Defense all and can be taken for ly scrutinize the Defense granted—it is continuing proc budget but would never saces," Mr. Nixon said at the rifice the nation's strength.