

Senator Reports Nixon Thoughts On Documents

Concord, N.H.

Senator Norris Cotton said yesterday that President Nixon has indicated to him that an independent person should determine what presidential documents should be turned over to the House Judiciary Committee.

"Whatever is relevant, must be revealed," the New Hampshire Republican said at an impromptu news conference.

He said he could not quote the President directly but that Mr. Nixon did say a third party should make the decision on the documents.

Associated Press

---