

Report of Woods

Washington

CBS News reported last night it had learned that federal marshals have been trying for two days without success to serve a Senate Watergate committee subpoena on Rose Mary Woods, President Nixon's personal secretary.

The report said the committee apparently had turned up some new information about the Howard Hughes-Bebe Rebozo aspect of its investigation and wants to question Miss Woods under oath.

United Press