

Percy laughs at Nixon's jab

United Press International

CHICAGO — Sen. Charles Percy yesterday laughed off a remark aimed at him by President Nixon as "good gamesmanship," but said there has always been a gap between the two.

Told by State Senator James Bell that "in my district, you're thought of belovedly by thousands of people," Nixon drew his biggest laugh of the session by saying, "perhaps you should tell your United States senator that."