

Editor—Mr. Nixon, who so adamantly insists that there should be no amnesty for the young men who he says "refused to serve their country" by refusing to go to Vietnam to kill and be killed or maimed in the illegal, immoral Vietnam war, could not care enough to serve his country by paying his share of the taxes. The very taxes that pay, and are still paying for the illegal commitment to the corrupt Thieu regime.

I submit that if ever a man damaged the Presidency he so vehemently insists he is protecting, it is Richard M. Nixon.
