

Nixon and Mothers

Key Biscayne, Fla.

Declaring May 12 Mothers Day, President Nixon called yesterday for diligent efforts to continue removing barriers to equal opportunity for women.

"Mothers are today, as never before, moving into highly skilled jobs and careers. Barriers against equal opportunity for women have been disappearing rapidly, but we must remain diligent in our effort to remove them," the President wrote.

Associated Press
