White House Gets 'Gift' of $10,000

WASHINGTON, April 17 (UPI)—A self-made Mexican-American businessman sent President Nixon a $10,000 check "with absolutely no strings attached" to help him over his half-million dollar tax troubles, the White House disclosed today.

Ken W. Clawson, director of White House communications, said the registered check will be returned to Jesus G. (Jesse) Monroy, owner of a string of restaurants in Los Banos, Calif., with a note of appreciation.
