WXPost 2 1 1974 gara Subpoena Action Is

By David Murray

If President Nixon ignores a House Judiciary Committee subpoena to turn over tapes and other materials, at least 30 of 38 committee members past reliability and because of their closeness to developments in Congress.

The survey in the wake of ported reasons. would now vote to recommend his impeachment, a Chicago Sun-Times congressional survev reveals.

Indeed, the survey showed, Mr. Nixon can count on only two or three sure votes on the committee, which is made up of 21 Democrats and 17 Republicans.

Since the outset of impeachment proceedings, the Sun-Times Washington bureau has were chosen because of their peachment inquiry began bepast reliability and because of cause of his support of the day of the subpoena for materials relating to some 42 presidential conversations on the White House Watergate coverup also showed that if such a lopsided margin persists among committee members, Mr. Nixon would be in severe danger of impeachment by the full House by a margin of nearly two to one.

than a dozen in number-who on the committee after the im-

All 21 Democrats are re-The survey in the wake of the issuance a week ago Thursimpeachment if the materials are not produced.

All members of the committee are lawyers

The committee subpoena served on the White House last Thursday was voted by 33 to 39. Hutchinson, Lott and Wiggins were opposed and three others were absent.

Over the weekend, the White House encouraged rement proceedings, the Sun-Times Washington bureau has conducted periodic soundings of Capitol Hill sentiment for a n d against impeachment. These surveys are based on exhaustive interviews with members of Congress, sena-tors and staff aides—more nearly two to one.

On the committee, Mr.
Nixon can count at this time on only two sure Republican votes—those of Rep. Edward Hutchinson of Michigan, the committee's ranking GOP member, and Rep. Delbert L. Latta of Ohio, who was placed

White House encouraged re-porters to write dispatches which said that the President would not comply with the subpoena, returnable next Thursday, but would instead give the committee an edited transcript of the tapes the committee demanded.