House OKs Impeach Probe Funds

Washington

The House yesterday passed a resolution providing another $733,773 to foot the cost of the House Judiciary Committee's impeachment inquiry from April 1 through June 30.

The committee has spent $438,365 on the investigation since its start in November.

The resolution passed by voice vote over some Republican opposition. Representative Charles Sandman, (Rep-N.J.) charged that at its present pace the investigation would go on for years.
