Ervin and Tunney Want Inquiry Into Silbert's Watergate Work

WASHINGTON, April 30 (AP) —Senator Sam J. Ervin Jr., Democrat of North Carolina, called today for am in-depth investigation by the Senate Judiciary Committee of the Justice Department's handling of the Watergate break-in case.

If this is not done, he said, ne will not be able to vote to confirm President Nixon's nomination of Earl J. Silbert, the original Government prosecutor in the case, to be United States Attorney here.
Senator John V. Tunney, Democrat of California, said that he agreed that a thorough investigation should be made.
Their comments were made investigation should be made.
Their comments were made
that he agreed that a thorough investigation should be made.
Their comments were made
that he agreed that a thorough investigation of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief break-in case "could hardly have been of more assistance to the cover-up operation."

Mr. Ervin, who is chairman of the Senate's Watergate investigating committee, said that he knew of nothing derogatory about Mr. Silbert and had formed no judgment on whethormed no judgment on whethmittee members present.

Robert S. Vance, president of the Association of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief
break-in case "could hardly
have been of more assistance
to the Cover-up operation."

Mr. Ervin, who is chairman of the Senate's Watergate investigating committee, said that he knew of nothing derogatory about Mr. Silbert testified last week that he had tried his best to bring out the whole story but had encountered lies, halftruths, the withholding of information of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief
the Association of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief
the Association of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief
the Association of State Democratic Chairmen, said that Mr.
Silbert's actions as the chief the Association of the Association of the