WASHINGTON, May 13 (UPI) — Senator Lowell P. Weicker Jr., Republican of Connecticut, and his wife made public today a statement of their net worth, listing total assets of $395,227. M. Weicker, a member of the Senate Watergate committee, said his total liabilities, including a $99,187 mortgage, were $129,858.

A statement of the Weickers' finances prepared by Wiendieck & Company, an accounting firm in Greenwich, Conn., listed a net worth of $265,365. Included in their total assets were $67,218 in stocks and bonds, $219,750 for the value of their Greenwich home, and $70,175 in furnishings, paintings, jewelry and personal property.

The statement said the figures represented the Weickers' worth as of Dec. 31, 1973.
