Consultant's Job Linked to Rebozo

HOUSTON, May 14 (UPI)— C. G. (Bebe) Rebozo, former Attorney General John Mitchell and Sen. John Tower (R-Tex.) aided in securing a government job for a political supporter in exchange for information on the Chicano po-litical party in Texas, The Houston Post said in a copyrighted story today.

The newspaper said docu-ments in the Watergate inves-President. ments in the Watergate Investigation indicate that three strong supporters of President Nixon's re-election in 1972 influenced the hiring of Celso Moreno, then of Corpus Moreno, then of Corpus Spanish-speaking White House Cabinet Committee on Opportunities for Spanish-Speaking "Mitchell's intereste People.

by the Senate Watergate com-mittee, the Post said, show that Moreno gathered political information on the political view last week party La Raza Unida while paid $400 a week as a government consultant.

The documents show that have Nixon campaign officials were trying to appease La Raza Unida so it would remain neutral in the 1972 presidential election, the Post said.

Federal law prohibits government employees from engaging in partisan politics.

JPI) According to the Post, in ormer April, 1972, Rebozo, a close friend of the President, wrote then campaign manager Mit-chell about Moreno. Rebozo was a political acquaintance of Moreno.

Records show that Mitchell forwarded the letter to Alex Armendariz, then head of the Spanish-speaking division of the Committee to re-elect the Spanish-speaking White House

interested him, Bebe Rebozo's interested Campaign documents held in him, Tower's office is interested in him, so let's see if we can't get him on,"Armendariz reportedly said in an inter-

Armendariz denied having used Moreno for political work, but he did say he may received unsolicited memoranda from Moreno about Spanish-speaking political activities.

Tower's office Monday denied that the senator encouraged campaign or administra-tion officials to place Moreno in a government position.