

Henry Ford 'Let Down' By President

DETROIT, May 25 (UPI)—President Nixon can prove his innocence only by handing over everything requested by the House Judiciary Committee, Ford Motor Co. Chairman Henry Ford II said today.

A $50,000 contributor to Mr. Nixon's 1972 re-election campaign, Ford said he feels "let down" by the President's actions. He said the committee studying impeachment must be given everything it asks for.

"I don't think there is any other basis on which to clear himself if he is innocent, and I think they should have everything," said the auto executive in his first public criticism of the President.

Ford's comments were contained in an interview taped for broadcast Sunday on Kaiser Broadcasting's Lou Gordon Show.

Ford said the country is in real trouble because of Watergate and that the President is "spending a lot of time on Watergate instead of on the other things he should be spending time on," such as inflation.
