Sue Vesco

San Juan, P.R. SFChronicle

Financier Robert Vesco was sued for $44.8 million by one of Puerto Rico's largest real estate developers in an action filed Saturday in U.S. District Court.

The suit was brought by EHG Enterprises which alleges that Vesco and co-defendants defrauded EHG in business transactions and damaged the reputation of the company by indirectly involving it in a civil suit filed by the Securities and Exchange Commission against Vesco.
