

Rebozo Also In Brussels, Calls on Nixon

Brussels

President Nixon spent 20 minutes last night chatting with his friend, Florida banker Charles Rebozo, a White House spokesman said.

The spokesman said Rebozo called on the President at the Chief Executive's temporary home at the residence of Ambassador Leonard K. Firestone.

Rebozo arrived in Europe about five days ago on a business trip and is only coincidentally in Brussels at the same time as the President, the spokesman said.
