

Republican Television Show
Postponed by Uncertainty

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 8 (UPI)—The Republican party chairman, George Bush, postponed today a 90-minute television show planned for tonight that was to have featured Vice President Ford and included tributes to President Nixon.

"The fast-changing situation in Washington has made it uncertain that party leaders could come to Los Angeles to appear on the program," Mr. Bush said.

In addition to Mr. Ford, the House minority leader, John J. Rhodes, of Arizona had also been scheduled to appear on the regionally televised morale-building special.

Mr. Bush emphasized that the show was being postponed and not cancelled. "We have a program we believe in and we will present it in the very near future," he said.

Speech Marks 6th Year
Since Nixon Acceptance

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8 (UPI)—President Nixon's televised address to the nation tonight marked the sixth anniversary of the night he accepted the Republican party's nomination for his first term in the White House.

In his acceptance speech the night of Aug. 8, 1968, at the national convention in Miami Beach, Mr. Nixon promised "a new day for America, a new dawn for peace and freedom in the world." He charged that "America's in trouble today, not because her people have failed but because her leaders have failed."
