

Aides Go to California With Nixon

San Clemente

Stephen Bull, appointments secretary for former President Nixon said yesterday that he and other members of the staff who came here from Washington planned to stay on "as long as we are wanted or needed."

Bull and press secretary Ronald Ziegler accompanied the Nixon family on the flight here along with several other staff members.

Bull talked briefly with reporters at the San Clemente Inn near the Nixon residence.

Under law, Nixon receives funds as former President for maintaining a certain amount of staff members.

United Press