

Nixon Does Not Listen To Address by Ford

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9 (UPI)—The Presidential aircraft, Spirit of '76, was 13 miles southwest of Jefferson City, Mo., flying at 39,000 feet at three minutes past noon today when Gerald R. Ford was sworn in as the 38th President of the United States.

Mr. Nixon was at his desk in the private compartment at the time, and Mrs. Nixon was in the next compartment. Their daughter Mrs. Edward F. Cox and her husband listened to Mr. Ford's address over the radio but Mr. Nixon did not, a spokesman said.

The Coxes later told Mr. Nixon about the broadcast and the President's mention of Mr. Nixon.
