

SEP 12 1974

SF Examiner

Report card: Ford barely passes

Associated Press

good job rating.

of pardons for all involved in Watergate.

NEW YORK — A poll commissioned by The New York Times shows President Ford's decisions on pardons have drained his support, with only 32 per cent of Americans giving him a

The newspaper said today the Gallup organization queried 553 persons by dent Ford on Sunday pardoned former President Nixon and the White House had announced Tuesday a study

Thirty-three per cent gave Ford a fair mark on his job performance; 25 per cent said he is doing a poor job, and 10 per cent had no opinion.