Fla. Hospital Head Said to Give Payoffs

MIAMI. Sept. 12 (AP) — present and former city, Sanford K. Bronstein, former county, state and federal offihead of the financially troubled Cedars of Lebanon Hospi-Gerstein said. tal. has offered to plead guilty to theft of $525,000 from the hospital and to name politicians who accepted his bribes, The Miami Herald said in today's editions.

The newspaper said lawyers were secretly plea-bargaining over the length of Bronstein's sentence if he pleads guilty to counts involving bribery and theft.

and theft.

Bronstein has named nine individuals and claimed he made $314,200 in payoffs for their help in obtaining approval of $62 million in loan guarantees from the Federal Housing Administration, the Herald said. The money was used for hospital expansion.

"Bronstein allegedly has information of serious corruption and bribery involving by Bronstein.

"Bronstein Codence of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court.

Court records show Cedars of Lebanon owes $12 million more than 600 creditors, and has defaulted on FHA-insured mortgages totaling $13.8 million.

The payoffs Bronstein offered to describe apparently related to checks drawn on hospital accounts and cashed by Bronstein.

Gerstein said.

Cerstein refused to identify any of the officials.

He confirmed today that the negotiations were being held, but added: "We will insist upon a jail sentence, and there will be no reduction of charges."

Bronstein, 57, was charged on May 22. He was forced to resign as the Hospital's president last March. The hospital

Harold Simonoff, Cedars' comptroller who has been granted immunity from prosecution, has said that he helped forge endorsements on checks which he believed were needed to make payoffs in re-turn for federal approval of the expansion.