SFChronicle SEP 2 3 1974 New Watergate 'Surprises' Predicted

Chicago

The former minority counthe former mmority counsel to the House Judiciary Committee said yesterday that Special Prosecutor Leon Jaworski has White House tapes not yet made public that will provide "surprises" abut Watergate.

Albert Jenner said the tapes were not received by the Judiciary Committee and were obtained by Ja-worski after the Supreme Court ruling on executive privilege.

The tapes contain damaging evidence against Watergate defendants but do not implicate any additional persons, Jenner said.
