Rabbi to Raise Money for Nixon

Reuter

JERUSALEM, Sept. 22—Rabbi Baruch Korff, who led a campaign to keep President Nixon in office, announced here today the formation of an international "Nixon Justice Fund" to raise money to pay Mr. Nixon's legal expenses.

The rabbi, who headed the National Citizens Committee for Fairness to the Presidency, said Mr. Nixon had already spent $40,000 on auditing his income tax documents and expected to spend another $50,000 on further legal expenses.

He said that he had not consulted the former President on the establishment of the fund although he expected to get Mr. Nixon's approval. The rabbi is in Israel on a private visit.
