

NYTimes OCT 19 1974
Words Dropped in Question

In Abzug House Resolution

A number of words were omitted in The New York Times yesterday in the text of one of the questions in a resolution of inquiry that figured in President Ford's appearance before a House Judiciary subcommittee.

The second question of the resolution submitted by Representative Bella S. Abzug, Democrat of Manhattan, should have begun as follows:

⊗ "Did Alexander Haig refer to or discuss a pardon for Richard M. Nixon with Richard M. Nixon or representatives of Mr. Nixon at any time during the week of Aug. 4, 1974, or at any subsequent time?"