3M Pleads Guilty in Campaign Contributions

Thursday, Jan. 23, 1975 THE WASHINGTON POST

Around the Nation

M Pleads Guil

ST. PAUL., Minn.—The 3M Co. yesterday pleaded guilty to five counts of making illegal corporate contributions to political campaigns in violation of Minne-

The company was fined $5,000 by Ramsey County District Court Judge Harold W. Schultz.

Minnesota Mining & Manufacturing's retired vice president, Irwin Hansen, pleaded quilty to three counts of aiding and abetting the illegal contributions and was fined $3,000.

Minnesota attorney gen-Minnesota attorney general Warren Spannaus said the company had made more than 390 contributions from 1963 to 1972, totaling at least $635,000. Recipients included both Republican and Democratic candidates in Minnesota and other states.

The roster included Democratic Gov. Wendell Anderson, of Minnesota, Democratic Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey and Walter F. Mondale of Minnesota and the Nixon presidential campaign paign.

Spannaus said he had found no evidence that candidates receiving the funds knew they came from corpoknew they came from corporate coffers.

The company had been fined $3,000 in U.S. District Court on Oct. 17, 1973, for contributing $30,000 to the Nixon re-election committee.

The chairman of the beard The chairman of the board of 3M, Harry Heltzer, was fined $500 in the same action.