

Are you ready,

for Nixon's

Ron Ziegler, at this point in time, is about to hit the college lecture circuit to talk on The Presidency—and defend his old boss. Tough job, but the $2,500 per helps. Meanwhile, back in lonely San Clemente, he tools around on a Honda, practices his new drums, works with Love and Hate boxes on his desk. An exclusive People story.

drummer?

