

Post FEB 24 1975

Ehrlichman Ready

To Aid Indians

John D. Ehrlichman, convicted in the Water-gate cover-up trial, will be going soon to New Mexico to work for the rights of Indians, his attorney said yesterday.

Ira M. Lowe said Ehrlichman flew home to Seattle yesterday to get his thing before going to Espanola, N.M.

Ehrlichman, who is free pending appeals, plans to work for eight Indian pueblos with 6,000 people using his legal expertise in land-use law. "It is his personal penance to help without fee," Lowe said.