

Appeal Notice

Associated Press

John N. Mitchell filed notice of appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals yesterday from his conviction and 2½- to 8-year prison sentence in the Watergate cover-up trial.

Mitchell, a former Attorney General was the last of the four convicted defendants to file the appeal notice. H. R. Haldeman John D. Ehrlichman and Robert C. Mardian filed their notices last week. All four men are free without bond pending the outcome of the appeals a process that could take one year or more.
