

New York Taxes

New York

Former President Nixon settled his back tax bill with New York City yesterday sending the city tax collector a check for $1227.35.

Finance Administrator Ivan Irizarry said Mr. Nixon owed $926.13 in back city income tax from earnings in New York City while he was President. Mr. Nixon also paid $301.22 in interest.

The former President's tax arrearage came to light after a state tax audit revealed that Mr. Nixon had earnings subject to state and city taxes for the period Jan. 1 to April 30, 1969.

United Press