Rabbi Korff Asks $15,000 For Nixon's Attorney's Bills

CINCINNATI, March 24 (UPI)

— Richard M. Nixon's chief money raiser, Rabbi Baruch N. Korff, appealed yesterday for $15,000 in donations so the former President can pay his attorneys' bills this week.

"President Nixon has a $30,000 payment to make to his attorneys the 26th of this month," the rabbi told a group of Nixon sympathizers in suburban Newport, Ky. "Right now we are short $15,000."

Rabbi Korff, 60, a chaplain in the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health who says he talks with Mr. Nixon regularly on the telephone, still refers to Mr. Nixon as "President Nixon."
