

Washington State Disbars Ehrlichman

Olympia, Wash.

The Washington State Supreme Court announced yesterday the disbarment of former presidential aide

John Ehrlichman because of his involvement in the Watergate scandal. The action was the result of an agreement under which Ehrlichman must wait at least three years before applying for reinstatement.

United Press