Ehrlichman Is Disbarred

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 25 (UPI) — The Washington State Supreme Court announced today the disbarment of John D. Ehrlichman, former aide to President Nixon, because of his involvement in the Watergate scandal. The court's action was the result of an agreement under which Mr. Ehrlichman must wait at least three years before applying for reinstatement as an attorney. He was suspended from the practice of law on Aug. 9 following one of two Federal court convictions.
