

NYTimes OCT 17 1975

CORRECTIONS

In an account in The New York Times last Friday of a golf tournament in which Richard M. Nixon participated, William Presser was identified as a Cleveland mob figure. Representatives of Mr. Presser deny that he is or ever has been a part of any criminal elements in that city.

An article in The Times yesterday on Earl J. Silbert, the new United States Attorney for the District of Columbia, said "it was not safe for official Washington to assume its rectitude again." The word "not" should have read "now."