

From Maxine Cheshire column, same date:

postponed ast until early ne Rockefeller will be or their house in Seal Harbor, Maine.

Retiree

Former President Richard M. Nixon's secretary, Rosemary Woods, retired

See VIP, D2, Col. 1

VIP, From D1

quietly on Nov. 22 from the General Services Administration payroll, where she has been carried since his resignation on Aug. 9, 1974.
She will receive an annual pension of $15,000. Woods has refused to discuss her plans with the press. It is possible that she could continue on Nixon's private payroll but she cannot work for the government unless she gives up her pension or a portion of it.

Potpouri

Those supermarke
and movie ma that Jaco trying
Car