Julie and David Meet Top Brass

Tokyo

David and Julie Eisenhower met ranking Chinese officials in Peking yesterday, including Chinese Foreign Minister Chiao Kuan-hua, the official Chinese news agency reported.

The grandson of President Dwight Eisenhower and the daughter of former President Nixon arrived in Peking on Monday, accepting an invitation extended by Chinese Premier Chou En-lai when Mr. Nixon visited China in 1972. 29 DEC

The Chinese, who have praised Mr. Nixon's role in restoring Peking-Washington relations, refer to the couple as Mr. Nixon's daughter and her husband.

The Eisenhowers are staying in a guest house reserved for high-ranking figures.
