

James Roosevelt And Wife Have Nixons to Dinner

Corona del Mar

Former President Nixon and his wife, Pat, spent an "informal family evening" with James Roosevelt, eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, and his wife.

The Nixons arrived for dinner at the Roosevelt residence in the fashionable Spyglass Hill area of Corona del Mar on Saturday evening and left about two hours later.

"They were our guests and we had a very enjoyable visit," said Roosevelt. He declined to give details about the dinner.

Roosevelt, whose father was a Democrat, angered some of his liberal friends in 1972 by endorsing Republican Nixon in his presidential re-election campaign.
