

That's Me All Over

THE MADDING THRONG: During the Jerry Brown fund-raiser at the S.F. Hilton Tues. night, Norwegian Journalist Sigrid Amundsen observed: "The reason Brown doesn't smile widely is that he has bad teeth." Harry the wope: "That's all we need — a boy President nude 12-cies!" ... "Jimmy Carter," interjected Especially Märq, "is the living proof that it not even the tooth fairy"

IN ONE EAR: Quoting the fly in Union Smithsonian a few days ago, I reported that the Peking Zoo is "so miserable" (his words) that the two musk oxen sent there by Nixon from the S.F. Zoo have died. Now I find that at almost the same time that item ran, a year-old male musk ox was dying here of lung congestion, so apologies to Peking. However, adds Zooperintendent Saul Kitchener, our three adult musk oxen are flourishing: one male (Chief) and two females (Liz and Ginny), both of whom are pregnant. Now you know why they call him Chief ... A Watergate Jr. in Sonoma, where Atty. Dale Underwood, running for Sup. Judge, lost all his personal files to a thief who broke into his office and took nothing else; the files were crammed with political dynamite from his days in the Sonoma D.A.'s office ... Rolling Stone has identified the Woodward-Bernstein "Deep Throat" Watergate source as Robert Bennett of the CIA, but that "scoop" seems to be falling apart. I'm betting with New Times on Jonathan Rose, who went to Yale with Woodward and was a Justice Dept. wheel under Nixon. It is known around Washington that "Deep Throat" was "a short Yalie," and Rose is that.
