

Rebozo Loses Zoning Bid

Miami

A group of businessmen led by Charles G. Rebozo and Robert Abplanalp, both confidantes of former President Nixon, lost a legal bid Wednesday to allow them to liberalize zoning on a portion of Key Biscayne.

on 48 acres of land along Crandon boulevard.

United Press

Circuit Judge Sam I. Silver denied their suit which asked for a zoning change which would allow 12-story buildings, rather than the current limit of two-story buildings, Slightly longer version filed Nixon.