New Books

FICTION

Call the Toff, by John Creasey;
The Toff and the Curate, by John Creasey (Walker, $4.50 each). Detective stories.
Morning Twilight, by Christine de Rivoyre, translated by Roger Greaves (Houghton Mifflin, $4.95). Love between enemies in wartime France.

GENERAL

GENERAL

Bunch Grass, poems by Robert Sund (University of Washington, $4.95; peperback, $2.45).

Fighters for a New World, by Thilo Koch (Putnam, $6.95). Picture and text account of the impact made on society by John F. Kennedy, Martin Luther King Jr. and Robert F. Kennedy.

Ford: An Unconventional Biography of the Men and Their Times, by Booton Herndon (Weybright & Talley, $8.95).

Frank Gifford: The Golden Year, 1956, by William N. Wallace (Prentice-Hall, $4.95). A year in the former Giants' football star.

Garbage as You Like It, by Jerome Goldstein (Rodale Press, Emmaus, Pa., $6.95). A plan to stop pollution by using the country's wastes.

Paperback Originals

Paperback Originals

Paperback Originals

Probable Volume of Dreams, poems by Marvin Bell; The Firescreen, poems by James Merrill; Untitled Subjects, poems by Richard Howard (Atheneum,
$3.95 each).

Reprints

Reprints

Rhode Island Architecture, by Henry-Russell Hitchcock, new foreword by the author (M.I.T. Press, $4.95); Seience, Technology and American Foreign Policy, by Eugene B. Skolnikoff (M.I.T. Press, $2.95).

Strategy and Structure: Chapters in the History of the American Industrial Enterprise, by Aldred D. Chandler Jr.; The Search for Understanding, edited by Caryl P. Haskins (M.I.T. Press, $2.95 each).