

Colored film of shooting in Life memorial edition, credited to "a Dallas clothing manufacturer", are taken from opposite side of the street.

PAGE 4 SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, Wednesday, Nov. 27, 1963

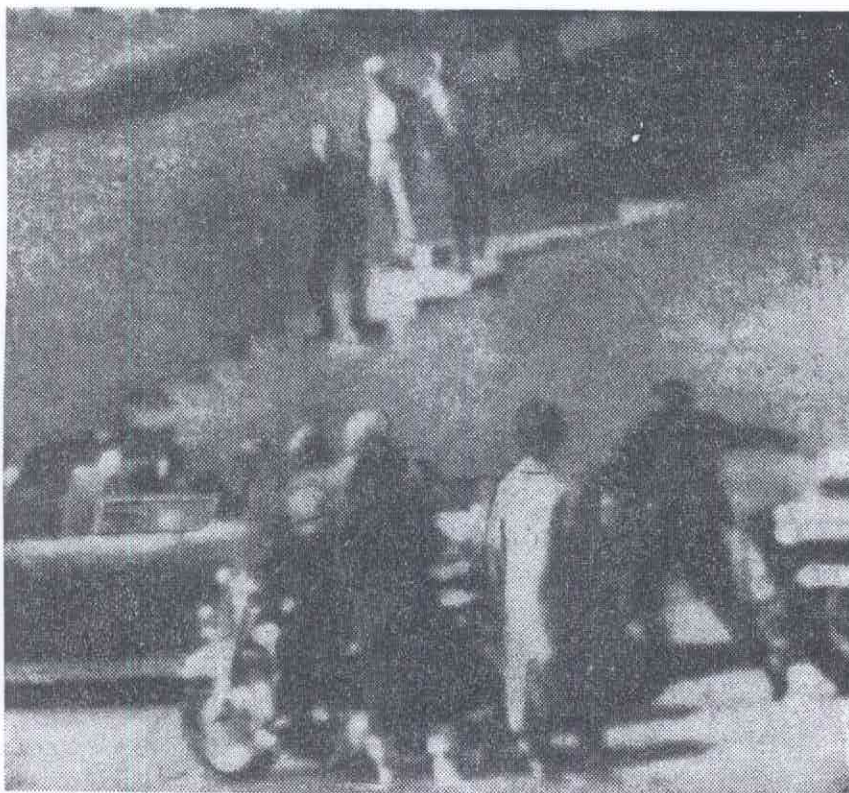

A Camera on The Murder

A Dallas clothing manufacturer had focused his color camera on the Presidential car during the assassination. The picture shows Mrs. Kennedy holding the slumping body of her husband.

In this photo from the 8mm movie strip taken by the amateur photographer, Abe Zapruder, motorcycle police are seen rushing to the car after the shots.

UPI Telephoto

A Secret Service agent dashes to the car of the mortally wounded President. The movie strip shows 15 seconds during which the Chief Executive was cut down.