November 1964

Letter to the editor from Harold Feldman and Vincent J. Salandria, Philadelphia.

Letter suggests Bob Considine story in Feb. 23 NY Journal-
American on Warren Reynolds shooting may not be accurate.

"Two acquaintances of ours went to Dallas and investigated the Considine report. They tell us that 1) they could find no death certificate for a Betty Mooney McDonald; 2) they found a death certificate for a Nancy Jane Mooney who hanged herself in jail; 3) she was a carhop, not a Jack Ruby stripper; her father says she never worked for Ruby; 4) two witnesses observed a man running from the scene who did not look like Garner and 5) Reynolds himself said that the assailant was not Garner."
