DALLAS, NOV. 14 (AP)-MAYOR ERIK JONSSON SUGGESTED TO DALLAS MINISTERS TODAY THAT THE FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY BE "OBSERVED IN SOME MEANINGFUL WAY."

THE ANNIVERSARY OF THE NOV. 22 ASSASSINATION FALLS ON SUNDAY.

JONSSON EMBODIED HIS SUGGESTION IN LETTERS MAILED TO SOME 600 CHURCHES WITH THE HELP OF THE GREATER DALLAS COUNCIL OF CHURCHES.

IN A PROCLAMATION TO BE PRESENTED AT A MEETING OF CITY COUNCIL MONDAY, THE DAY WILL BE PROCLAIMED AS A "DAY FOR PRAYERFUL MEDITATION."

THE PROCLAMATION CARRIES THE EXHORTATION THAT "THE PEOPLE OF DALLAS OBSERVE IT IN THIS (PRAYERFUL) MANNER IN THEIR HOMES AND THEIR PLACES OF WORSHIP."

"THE LATE PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY TRAGICALLY DIED AT THE HANDS OF AN ASSASSIN WHO WAS AN ALIEN TO THE MOST CHERISHED IDEALS OF AMERICA, AND A STRANGER IN OUR MIDST," THE PROCLAMATION SAYS.
