

Memories as fresh as flowers

SF Examiner NOV 23 1975

It was 12 years ago yesterday that President John F. Kennedy was killed by an assassin's bullet. Memories pale with time, but for these members of the Kennedy family gathering around his grave, the memories are suddenly as fresh as the flowers.

