

Shots from knoll or overpass?

Jean Hill

Tom Wicker, NYT) Bonnie Dugger, Texas Observer) motorcycle policeman riding across grass toward trestle

James Vachule, Fort Worth Star Telegram - shots at overpass

Jerry Flemmons, same, - shots from direction of overpass

Mary Woodward, Dallas Morning News, speaking for self and three co-workers standing on slope just east of overpass; sound of shots from behind and a little to the right

Roy Truly

Seymour Weitzman - started in NW direction and scaled the fence

O.V. Campbell

Craig, Roger D. ? (deputy sheriff)

Lovelady, Billy?

Harry D. Holmes - (after the shots) "people went from every direction hunting around the railroad yard and among the cars parked in the area."
VII 291

Ronnie Dugger - "Through the windows /of press car/ we saw people breaking and running down Elm Street in the direction of the underpass, and running to the railing of the arch at the foot of the downtown section and leaping out of our sight onto the grass beyond and below ... " (Columbia Journalism Review, Winter, 1964, p. 6.)

Harold Feldman - Of 121 witnesses, 38 had no clear opinion, 32 thought they came from TSBD. 51 held the shots sounded as if they came from west of the Depository, the area of the grassy knoll. (Minority of One, March 1965, p. 16.)