

Kennedy Plane Lands Safely
WASHINGTON, Feb. 28 (UPI)
—The Kennedy family plane Caroline, with former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy aboard, safely landed today at Norfolk, Va., when the pressurization in its cabin was lost. An aide to Senator Edward M. Kennedy, Democrat of Massachusetts, said other transportation was being arranged for President Kennedy's father. The elder Kennedy was reported to be flying from Palm Beach, Fla. His destination was not known.