

Mrs. Kennedy Plans Trip

Mrs. John F. Kennedy will probably travel to Asia within a month or so, primarily to visit a half-sister in Hong Kong, her office announced yesterday. Her half-sister is Mrs. Lewis Rutherford, whose husband teaches college in Hong Kong.

The trip, for which the date has not been set, may include stopovers in Thailand and Cambodia. A spokesman said that Mrs. Kennedy's children would be in school at the time and probably stay home.
